

Growing Green!

Bridgewater Sustainability Festival 2010

Saturday, August 21st

ON KING STREET (Empire to Old Bridge) from 8:30 am to 3:00 pm

(Closed to car traffic 7:00 am to 4:30 pm - please come on foot or park on nearby streets)

FREE Street Festival Featuring:

- Expanded Bridgewater Farmers' Market & local food & drink
- Information and activities that help you live greener and healthier
- Environmentally responsible products and services for all areas of life
- A special "town greening" action, that everyone can take part in!
- Art display at the Bridgewater Library
- Local authors, kids activities & belly dancers!
- FREE corn boil @ Noon... and much, much more!

Family Frolick Parade!

A FREE "people-powered" parade to celebrate safe walking and cycling! Starts at the Community Garden (next to Superstore). Ride your bike, walk, or skateboard! Face painting & costume making starts 8:30, parade marshalling at 9:30. Fantasy & fun for children & adults alike. Prizes for costumes & props! More info: 298-0595

Music & Entertainment!

Acres and Acres	Kelly Blair
Aine Maclellan	Nick Jeffrey
Bob Ardern	No Family
Darren Arsenault	Sam Wentzell
Desi Gordon	Stewart Frank
Dusty Keleher	... and more!

Bridgewater Century Ride!

Cheer on the 150+ riders who will take part in a 115km "Gran Fondo" race around Lunenburg County to promote safe cycling. See cool bike gear! Bike rodeo & bike tours! Registration & more info: www.bridgewatercenturyride.com

Reduce waste! Bring a refillable water bottle, plate, and cup, etc. and get food discounts!

"Age-friendly" drop-off area on corner of Empire & King

More information: www.growinggreenfest.com / 541-4390

growinggreenfest@gmail.com

Festival Partners:

Little River Folk