Growing Green Festival!

Call for Volunteers!

Bridgewater is Growing Green! This summer, the Town of Bridgewater is hosting the 3rd Annual Growing Green Festival to highlight and celebrate green community initiatives.

✦ WHAT: A free community street festival featuring music, art displays, farmers' market, food & drink, kid & family activities, community group booths, skills demonstrations and workshops and more! All of the events are designed to promote participation and open up the discussion on living green.
✦ WHEN: Saturday, July 23rd, 8:30am-12:30pm
✦ WHERE: Downtown Bridgewater (on King St between Empire St & Dominion St)
✦ WHO: Everyone is welcome! This is an all ages and family-friendly event. The Festival is an initiative of the Town of Bridgewater, and is coordinated by a team of community volunteers, town staff and council members.

How you can help

Here are just some of the ways that volunteers can be involved with the Festival:

- Outreach to the community
- Solicit sponsors
- Set-up & take-down tables, tents, etc.
- Assist and provide hospitality to vendors, exhibitors and entertainers
- Assist with and/or participate in the Walking & Wheeling parade
- Create attractive signs & displays to educate festival visitors about living green
- Assist with the children's area
- Greet festival visitors at welcome gates
- Be a roving question-answerer
- Prepare and serve food

If you can't make it on-the-day, there are ways to help out before and after. There are many ways to support this event. Any contribution, big or small, is appreciated.

All-call Volunteer Meeting

Sunday, June 19th, 7:00-8:00pm at the Bridgewater Fire Hall. Everyone is welcome to volunteer! All those who would like to find out more are invited to attend this meeting.
